

British Values / Protected characteristics

		Democracy	Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Mutual Respect	Protected Characteristics
EYFS	PHSE	Being Me in My World – children learn about rights and responsibilities, sharing, taking turns and expressing their views and feelings.	Being Me in My World – understanding the right to learn and play safely; kind and unkind behaviour. Healthy Me – keeping safe and understanding strangers.	Celebrating Difference – understanding uniqueness and being proud of differences. Changing Me – talking about worries and feelings.	Celebrating Difference – different families, friendships and homes. Relationships – friendship skills and resolving fallouts.	Celebrating Difference – family diversity. Changing Me – growing from baby to adult (Age). Healthy Me/Changing Me – body awareness (Sex).
Year 1		Being Me in My World – rights and responsibilities of class members; understanding that views are important.	Being Me in My World – choices and consequences. Healthy Me – medicines, road safety and keeping safe. Important places in our school Understanding rules, responsibilities and keeping safe within shared spaces.	Healthy Me – healthy lifestyle choices. Relationships – identifying trusted adults and seeking help. Ourselves (including Local History) Understanding identity, belonging and individual experiences.	Celebrating Difference – understanding bullying and valuing differences. Relationships – healthy friendships and different family structures. Ourselves Respecting similarities and differences within the local community. Nursing Caring for others and valuing those who help us. Are all UK cities the same? Appreciating differences between places and communities.	Celebrating Difference – uniqueness and difference. Relationships – different families. Changing Me – male/female body parts and growth (Sex/Age). Ourselves Changes within living memory and personal history. (Age) Nursing Caring professions and supporting people with health needs. (disability) Challenging stereotypes around caring professions.
Year 2		Being Me in My World – listening to others, valuing opinions and cooperative decision-making.	Being Me in My World – rewards and consequences. Celebrating Difference – understanding right and wrong and the impact of choices. Great Fire of London Development of fire safety laws, rebuilding regulations and public safety measures. Medicine Through Time How medicine became regulated and safer through laws and scientific developments.	Celebrating Difference – being yourself and not conforming to gender stereotypes. Healthy Me – making healthy choices. Famous Explorers Exploration, ambition and personal achievement. Medicine Through Time Improvements in healthcare increasing quality of life and personal choices. Leeds and Shanghai Understanding that people live differently around the world and make different lifestyle choices.	Relationships – trust, respect, care and cooperation within families and friendships. Celebrating Difference – friends can be different and still be friends. Famous Explorers Learning about different countries, cultures and ways of life. Leeds and Shanghai Respecting different cultures, lifestyles and ways of living. Coast and Countryside Understanding different communities and environments within the UK.	Celebrating Difference – boys and girls, stereotypes and diversity (Sex). Relationships – different family structures. Changing Me – growth and ageing (Age). Medicine Through Time Treatment of illness and disability through history.

Year 3		Being Me in My World – understanding school values, fairness and different viewpoints. Relationships – children’s rights Civil Rights Individuals campaigning for equal rights and social change; understanding how citizens can influence society and government. Would you rather visit London or Valencia as a tourist? Considering different viewpoints and making informed choices based on evidence.	Being Me in My World – rules, choices and consequences. Relationships – rights and responsibilities online. Civil Rights Understanding laws that discriminated against people and how laws changed to promote equality.	Dreams and Goals – personal goals and ambitions. Relationships – online safety and accessing support. Civil Rights Individual freedoms and equal rights. London or Valencia? Making informed personal choices and evaluating destinations.	Celebrating Difference – bullying, conflict resolution and family diversity. Relationships – friendship skills and respecting viewpoints. Ancient Egypt Respecting different beliefs, traditions and cultures. Civil Rights Understanding discrimination and the importance of equality and respect. London or Valencia? Understanding and respecting different cultures and traditions.	Celebrating Difference – challenging stereotypes. Vocabulary includes gay (Sexual Orientation). Relationships – equality, rights and fairness. Civil Rights Equality and rights for all groups. Equality, anti-racism and social justice. Ancient Egypt Ancient religious beliefs and practices. (Race) Roles of men and women in society. (sex)
Year 4		Being Me in My World – explicit teaching of democracy, voting, consensus and pupil voice. Ancient Greece Study of the first democracy in Athens and how citizens participated in decision-making. Roman Empire Understanding Roman government, senators and civic responsibilities.	Being Me in My World – democracy, authority and UNCRC rights. Healthy Me – resisting peer pressure and understanding right and wrong. Ancient Greece Laws, citizenship and responsibilities within Greek city-states. Roman Empire Roman law and its influence on modern legal systems. Anglo-Saxons Local laws, justice systems and community rules.	Healthy Me – resisting pressure to smoke or drink alcohol. Dreams and Goals – setting goals and aspirations. Ancient Greece Discussion of citizenship and who had freedoms within society.	Celebrating Difference – challenging assumptions and bullying. Relationships – jealousy, empathy, compromise and healthy relationships. Ancient Greece Comparing societies and respecting different ways of life. Romania Appreciating the contribution of other countries to the global community.	Celebrating Difference – challenging judgements based on appearance. Changing Me – puberty and biological development (Sex/Age).
Year 5		Being Me in My World – understanding democracy, citizenship and contributing to democratic processes. Suffragettes Campaign for women's right to vote and participation in democratic processes.	Being Me in My World – citizenship, rights and responsibilities. Celebrating Difference – racism, forced marriage, honour-based violence. Being Me in My World – knife crime awareness Suffragettes Campaigning to change unfair laws affecting women.	Relationships – online rights and responsibilities; staying safe online. Dreams and Goals – aspirations and future careers. Suffragettes Women's freedom to vote and participate equally in society. Romania Exploring employment, trade and opportunities in different countries.	Celebrating Difference – racism, cultural understanding and conflict resolution. Dreams and Goals – learning from different cultures. Vikings Challenging stereotypes and understanding different cultures. Migration into Leeds Appreciating diversity and the contributions of migrant communities.	Celebrating Difference – Race, Culture and Racism. Vocabulary includes homophobic bullying (Sexual Orientation). Changing Me – puberty and consent (Sex). Celebrating Difference – forced marriage Migration into Leeds Diverse communities and migration. Religious diversity within Leeds communities. Suffragettes Women's rights and gender equality. Romania

						Understanding different national identities and cultures.
Year 6		Being Me in My World – democracy, pupil voice and participation in democratic processes. WW2 Understanding the defence of democratic values against dictatorship. British Empire Discussion of governance, power and political control across the Empire. What is life like in Ecuador? Understanding how people live within different political, social and economic systems.	Being Me in My World – UNCRC rights, global citizenship. Healthy Me – gangs, exploitation and criminal behaviour. Celebrating Difference – Stop and Search rights. Changing Me – FGM is illegal in the UK. British Empire Understanding how laws and government were used across the Empire. WW2 Wartime laws, rationing and the role of government during conflict.	Changing Me – consent and body autonomy. Relationships – online safety and recognising grooming. Healthy Me – making informed choices about health and wellbeing. Migration into Leeds Freedom of movement, opportunity and seeking a better life. Golden Age of Islam Freedom of enquiry, learning and scientific discovery.	Celebrating Difference – equality, fairness, disability awareness, gender identity and anti-bullying. Dreams and Goals – working together to improve the world. British Empire Understanding different perspectives and experiences. WW2 Respecting the experiences and sacrifices of different groups during wartime. Life in Ecuador Understanding cultural diversity and different ways of life. Climate Change in Ecuador Understanding how environmental issues affect different communities globally.	Celebrating Difference – disability, transgender identity, non-binary identities, equality and fairness. Changing Me – pregnancy, birth and relationships. Relationships/Celebrating Difference – forced marriage, FGM and consent. WW2 Impact of war injuries and rehabilitation. Changing roles of women during wartime. Golden Age of Islam Understanding contributions from different cultures. Islamic faith and contributions to society. WW2 Religious persecution during the Holocaust. Life in Ecuador Understanding how beliefs influence lifestyles and communities. Learning about diverse communities and indigenous populations.